Edison's Light.

NEW YORK, Jan 30—Edison has perfected his electric light, and is annoyed by the adverse criticisms of scientists

The Distress in Ireland and Measures for its Relief.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30—Richard O'Gorman, treasurer of the Irish relief committee of New York, has received a cable dispatch from Edmund D Grey, lord mayor of Dublin and chairman of the Mansion house relief committee of Dublin, stating that distress in west Ireland is rapidly increasing and assuming alarming proportions O'Gorman said this morning that he was daily in receipt of information from Ireland, all to the effect that distress in Connaught and the northwest, and on the islands lying off these parts was rapidly developing dimensions far exceeding the worst fears of the people In some districts the distress had almost taken the character of a famine and the gravest fear is entertained for the spring and early summer He will to-morrow send £200 to the Mansion house committee, which will make £2100 already sent by this committee

The Irish relief committee of this city has issued an address to the people of the United States, earnestly requesting speedy contributions for distressed Ireland After reciting the miserable condition in many districts the address says that the Dublin Mansion House committee seems to fulfill all conditions required for the wise and humane distribution of any funds placed in their hands Subscriptions to the Irish relief fund will be received by the treasurer, Henry L Hoguet at the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank, 51 Chambers street

Parnell on his Mettle.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan 30—Parnell to-night violently attacked the veracity and birth of Lord Alfred Churchill, who by cable from Ireland has denied Parnell's statements made in this country The proceeds of the meetings here and at Holyoke were $2000

WASHINGTON CITY.

Preparing for Blaine's Reception—A Straw in his Favor.

WASHINGTON, Jan 30—A meeting of Senator Blaine's friends will be held here to get up a serenade and reception in honor of his services in putting down the recent rebellion in Maine. The National Republican, which has been for Grant first, last and all the time, begins to show signs of flopping over to Blaine.

New Testimony on the Ute Question by Gov. Pitkin.

WASHINGTON, Jan 30—Gov. Pitkin, of Colorado, to-day resumed his testimony before the house committee on Indian affairs He related the incidents of his interviews with Jack and other Indians to show that Ouray has gradually lost influence over the younger Utes, and that a feeling of disaffection and war spirit had for some time past been gaining ascendency with them He said that some of the scouts had, previous to the Thornburgh fight, been warned that the Indians would attack the troops at or near Bear river, and that the general opinion among the people of Colorado was that the outbreak was premeditated

Sherman before the Senate Finance Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan 30—Secretary Sherman was before the finance committee to-day in response to their call for an oral expression of his views on funding questions and other topics. The secretary's remarks, aside from a repetition of his well known views in regard to funding, were for the most part simply an epitome of his last annual report and of the accompanying finance exhibits for the year The conference was not concluded to-day and the secretary will appear before the committee next week

Commissioner Hayt's Dismissal

WASHINGTON, Jan 30—With regard to the peremptory dismissal of Commissioner Hayt, Secretary Schurz states that it was not based upon any statement or confession made by Gen. Hammond, but on information obtained by him in an altogether different manner The position, he says, as yet has been offered to no one, not yet having determined upon his successor The press correspondent called upon Gen Hammond at his hotel, and his physician refused to allow any one to see him but Gen. Hammond, in response to a note sent down the following "I did not see Mr Schurz at Riggs' house or at any other place yesterday or to-day, and no such interview as was reported in the morning papers has taken place, and consequently the statements thereon are physically impossible"

Major Reno's Case.

Although no official confirmation can be obtained as yet of the story that the court which has been investigating the charges against Major Reno has recommended his dismissal the accuracy of this report is generally conceded It is further stated unofficially however that Gen Sherman favors a milder course and will recommend that Major Reno be suspended for a year

The Denver Mint

WASHINGTON Jan 30—The secretary of the treasury has increased the bullion fund of the Denver mint $120 000 and authorized the purchase of silver by the assayer in charge in lots of less than 10 000 ounces

The Exodus Investigation

The senate exodus committee to-day examined again Chas H [illegible] who under cross examination admitted that Mendenhall was the only person in Washington whom he had heard advise the exodus for political reasons He believed that all colored people of intelligence in North Carolina opposed the exodus

E A Bonitz editor of a Goldsboro N C democratic paper testified that it was difficult to account for the exodus Certainly it was [illegible]

The Mining Debris Question to be Investigated

WASHINGTON, Jan 30—In response to a [illegible] secretary [illegible] [illegible] the would practically commit the government [illegible] being in accord with Page's joint resolution which [illegible] amended so as to provide that two of the [illegible] members of the proposed commission shall be navy engineers two of the army engineers and one from the coast survey instead of as at present requiring that four shall be army engineers and one a member of the coast survey

A Defense for Wells, Fargo & Co.

Representative Page in his argument before the committee of postoffice officials concerning Wells Fargo & Co's carriage of letters, took the ground that the people wanted more and better facilities and not a curtailment of their present facilities and unless it could be shown that the transportation of stamped envelopes is a public injury instead of being as he claimed a public benefit the department would not be justified in enforcing against the express company any regulation that is not applicable to individuals or to any other common carriers He called attention to the fact that Wells Fargo & Co, besides swelling the postal revenues by the purchase of $60 000 worth of stamped envelopes per annum saves the government the cost of transporting them and the letters inclosed therein He also remarked that the objection to the employment of postmasters as express agents has no force but that, on the contrary the government is thereby in many instances enabled to keep a better class of men in its service than could be obtained for the postoffice salary alone

Personal

Representative Pacheco returned from New York to-day and brought his family with him to remain during the rest of the session

California's Claim to Certain Lands Disallowed

The secretary of the interior has affirmed the decision of the commissioner of the general land office respecting the application of Elijah W Mull to enter a certain tract of land in the San Francisco district and reverses his decision on the award of the tract to the state This case involves some interesting points which are briefly as follows

First—Where the state of California had sold a portion of the public lands to a purchaser under her laws and had made an illegal attempt to select the same but had afterwards accepted a surrender of certificate of purchase and issued a transfer certificate for the money paid there is nothing left for confirmation by act of congress passed July 23 1866, to quiet land titles in the state of California

Second—To bring a case within such confirmation it must be affirmatively shown that the purchaser fully complied with state laws and made all payments required thereby up to the date of the confirmatory act

Third—Under the act of March 1 1877 relating to indemnity selections in the state of California title is not confirmed if at the date of such selections the 16th or 36th section named as a basis for indemnity was not in fact a private claim but was found already surveyed in place and subject to approbation by the state under the school grant

Fourth—In such a case the state purchasers had a preference right of purchase from the United States to an amount not exceeding 320 acres by one person and upon failure to make such purchase after proper demand the land is subject to disposal under general land laws the certification to the state being found accidental, erroneous and invalid

NEWS NOTES FROM THE SOUND

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

SEATTLE Jan 29 1880

The U S district court for this judicial district convened here on Monday The docket is very full, and the session will be a long one

The transportation of coal over the local railroad suspended for some time on account of the heavy land slide near the head of the bay, has been again resumed in earnest

Some little excitement has been caused here by the announcement that a company has been formed of San Francisco capitalists for the construction of the much talked of wagon road from this city to Walla Walla

During the recent heavy storm Sheriff Allen and daughter got lost in the snow, near [illegible], remaining out from 6 P M until 3 A M at which time they were fortunately rescued not, however until completely exhausted and about to give up in despair

The present winter will long be remembered as one of the most severe ever experienced on the sound 'Tis true that the thermometer has been lower during past winters the lowest reading this season being 10° above zero but never before have we experienced such deep snows and continued cold However as one extreme usually follows another it would be no surprise to us to see an uncommonly early spring

The new steamer being built here by the P S T Co for the Skagit route will be ready for service about the first of April and none too soon as her services as those of all other boats of sufficient power and the necessary light draught for the navigation of the swift flowing Skagit, will be in urgent demand Work on the proposed trail will be commenced just as soon as the snow settles sufficiently to admit of the workmen getting down to the site

The following list of officers were recently installed at Newcastle Lodge No 8 I O O F C W Young, N G John Haley, V G John B Berg R S Thomas Hoskins, P S Duncan Buchanan Treasurer The following list will show the appointed officers James Perry, Warden J G Bryant Conductor James Weir R S N G Mitchell Love I S N G William Ashworth R S V G Amos Stevens L S V G Henry Harris O G Thomas Vow, I G The lodge is in a prosperous condition with over $500 in its treasury The lodge room has been newly repaired and refurnished A site for a cemetery including two acres of land one of which has been cleared grubbed and laid off into lots for public use for interments has recently been purchased by the lodge

The rush to the Skagit mines is just fairly under way During the past two weeks some sixty men have left here for the new diggings including Messrs Spaulding and Newell with the machinery for a water power sawmill to be constructed about midway up Ruby creek in the center of the new gold fields The steamer Chehalis recently overhauled and fitted up with additional power for the navigation of the Skagit river has been placed on the route At present however she finds it impossible to advance further up stream than the coal mines on account of the unusual low stage of water From thence the miners go in canoes to Goodsell's place where a large party of them are at present in camp waiting for the snow to settle before pushing on across the mountain to Ruby creek

The very inclement weather of the past month or six weeks has proved a wet blanket to business enterprises of every sort and brought things pretty much to a standstill However it is likely to be the more lively when spring opens Many are and not without good reasons too anticipating a business boom in the spring However this may be times will certainly be sufficiently prosperous to meet all desirable ends During the past two years of dull times the growth of our city though slow perhaps has been steady and yet not too slow for permanent prosperity Improvements have been of a permanent and solid character [illegible] our city's existence [illegible] prospects for the future Manufacturing enterprises have been [illegible] our city may now be considered the manufacturing center of western Washington [illegible] across the [illegible] [illegible]

AN ATTACK ON GEN SHERMAN

An Old Enemy of the General's makes Charges against him

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON Jan [illegible] Gen H V Boynton [illegible] Secretary of War [illegible] [illegible] Sherman [illegible] was also [illegible] in his capacity [illegible] with a full understanding that what he said was so intended for publication among other false and slanders [illegible] of the undersigned He is entirely without character You could hire him to do any thing [illegible] For a thousand dollars he would slander his own mother and that he was very persistent and energetic in manufacturing falsehoods These things [illegible] spoken to a reporter for publication and [illegible] uttered in the presence and hearing of others constitute the crime of slander as defined [illegible] laws in force in the District of Columbia This constitutes the first specification

The second specification is in effect that four days after General Boynton, feeling confident that however severely General Sherman might criticise a review of his memoirs by the undersigned by which—more particularly in speaking to the reporter—he would not so far forget what belonged to his high office as to use language so coarse so false and so unofficerlike He therefore called the attention of General Sherman in writing to the reporter's article and asked if the words attributed to him were correctly stated Gen Sherman replied endorsing them in language in some respects still more gross than that to which his attention had been called This latter he subsequently exhibited to others by which exhibition he again violated the laws relating to the crime of slander

Specification three sets forth that Sherman in his memoirs purporting to give an accurate account of himself during the civil war and having all the records within reach committed grave inexcusable errors in his statement, and did by these writings do great injustice to noted officers serving with or under him notably to Gen U S Grant in connection with the Forts Henry and Donelson campaign, and the march to the sea to Gen D C Buell and the army of the Ohio in connection with the battle of Pittsburg Landing, to Gen Geo H Thomas then deceased, and the army of the Cumberland in connection with the battles of Chattanooga and Nashville and the assault on Kennesaw mountain to Gen J B McPherson then deceased, in connection with the battle of Resaca to Generals John A Logan and Francis P Blair, then dying with paralysis in connection with the battle of Atlanta to Generals Morgan, Sooy Smith and H M Stanton in connection with the Savannah cotton matter These aspersions against noted officers and these various errors unjust assertions and unfounded claims and aspersions having been partly exposed by Henry N Boynton the writer of honorable character and fair reputation by comparing the writings of the said Wm T Sherman general of the army with the official records of the war, and publishing the same in a volume showing that the march to the sea for which General Sherman took full credit really was planned by General Grant and that other campaigns of which Sherman claimed to have been the originator, were the work of other generals

Gen Boynton says that he has concluded to afford Gen Sherman an opportunity of asking for a court which if called, must of necessity be made up of officers high in rank and possessing the respect and confidence of the public It would also be a court wherein the general of the army would have every advantage which high rank and extended fame could give It is respectfully submitted that while the officers may not violate the letter of articles of war by writing inaccurately and to the discredit of distinguished fellow officers and of renowned armies, such conduct does most grossly violate their spirit, and it is further respectfully submitted that an officer holding the position of general in the army with all the records of the war at his control by which to insure justice and accuracy, cannot well commit greater offense against military morals than to publish inaccurate and unjust statements to injury of noted officers both living and dead whose reputations deeds and fame are as dear to the country as his own

The Party's Incurable Stupidity, [illegible] Its Record of the Past Twenty Five Years—Partial List of Stupendous Blunders

[illegible] a few grains [illegible] into the [illegible] stupid [illegible] three hundred and fifty pounds [illegible] have the [illegible] power to the [illegible] But the Oregonian paid no attention to his prayers or their southern brothers paid no attention to the Omnipotent They went on making [illegible] of themselves and the party without a hope of resurrection went into every campaign with the damned hell and senseless soul [illegible] clinging to their necks Then in agony of spirit he cried, Oh if I could only get some of our leaders in a room alone with me for a few minutes so that I could pour into them some [illegible] the devilish [illegible] heads

This expresses about all there is in the Bourbon party situation It is a situation of [illegible] to which the party has been brought solely by its own persistent [illegible] unparalleled political stupidity For thirty years—ever since the close of Mr Polk's administration—the history of that party has been the history of pig headed [illegible] The annexation of Texas gave a new impetus to agitation upon the slavery question [illegible] at the south and the north and the tendency of public opinion to divide on the geographical line between the free and the slave sections became strong and persistent The predominant southern idea was to extend the area of slavery the predominant northern idea to extend the area of freedom Influenced by these conflicting ideas parties began to assume the sectional character the south versus the north Under the [illegible] pretense of regarding slavery as a state institution not to be brought into national politics northern politicians styling themselves democrats espoused the southern idea and that party, at the north, simultaneously began to grow "small by degrees and beautifully less." Nevertheless such was their political stupidity they could not see the pit of destruction to which, as a party they were hastening. They persisted in giving to their organization the character of a pro slavery propaganda, and in more sharply defining year by year the irrepressible conflict between northern civilization and southern barbarism This was the real issue in every presidential contest from Polk to Buchanan The crisis that had so long been approaching was precipitated by the repeal in the interest of slavery of the Missouri compromise—the first in a continuous series of gigantic political blunders, of which the latest is the incomparably stupid blunder in Maine

These grand blunders may be presented numerically, in their historic order as follows

Blunder 1 Repeal of the Missouri compromise

Blunder 2 Attempt of the Buchanan administration to establish slavery in Kansas

Blunder 3 Rebellion of the southern half of the party

Blunder 4 Manifestation of sympathy by the northern rump with their southern confreres.

Blunder 5 Opposition by the northern rump to the emancipation policy

Blunder 6 Hostility to the war policy manifested in the peace programme of 1864

Blunder 7 Re-embrace by the northern rump of their southern brethren after the war

Blunder 8 Opposition to the political enfranchisement of the negroes

Blunder 9 Opposition to the war amendments of the constitution

Blunder 10 Opposition to the candidacy of Grant for president

Blunder 11, Party's glorification of the south on the old pretext of state sovereignty and white man's government

Blunder 12, Rejection by the solid south party of Hayes conciliation policy

Blunder 13 Attempt to reopen the presidency squabble of 1876 by the Potter inquisition

Blunder 14 Southern war claims raid on the national treasury

Blunder 15 Espousal of the greenback fiat money programme or national fraud

Blunder 16 The reactionary programme to wipe out the national election laws and other legislation of the war

Blunder 17. The extra session to carry forth that reactionary programme

Blunder 18 Ratification and fulfillment of executive usurpations in Louisiana and Florida, and attempt to commit the usurpation in Oregon

Blunder 19 Perpetration and defense of like executive usurpation in Maine

This is far from being a complete list of Bourbon blunders committed in the last twenty five years To give a full list would require a volume or a complete history of the course of the party during that period

The greatest blunder of all was not the extra session nor the rebellion of the southern half of the party in 1861 It was the attempt of the party to outlive the rebellion By its blundering course from 1848 to 1860 it had become an organization for the single purpose of protecting and promoting the southern slaveholding interest It was essentially a pro slavery party, controlled and directed in all its policies by southern slave owners Its conventional leaders affirmed and reaffirmed the pestilent state sovereignty doctrine of Jefferson and Calhoun as the fundamental tenet of their party creed because that doctrine was seen to be essential to the perpetuity of slavery So of every doctrine upon which the party laid great emphasis in the presidency campaigns from 1848 to 1860 it was the slavery interest expected to be served by their application The first gun of the rebellion was the death knell of that interest and ought to have been regarded by the northern leaders as the signal for the dissolution of the party whose mission to defend that interest was thereby ended The death of slavery was the removal of the foundation on which that party had existed since the annexation of Texas It was the annihilation of its reason to be The continuance of its organic and nominal being by its office seeking leaders was the most stupendous blunder in all their blundering career It was an attempt to combat the inevitable without a rational motive or a single political object which it was possible to gain It was the attempt of a political body to survive after every spark of political life had been knocked out of it It was the supreme act of party stupidity in comparison to which all subsequent acts of stupidity are dwarfed It was the one grand blunder whose towering magnitude of blundering overtops all antecedent and all subsequent blunders of the Bourbon politicians

[illegible] as profane What [illegible] have to [illegible] at the head of an [illegible] incapable of performing but one kind of [illegible] a blunder?

PORTLAND AND "THE OREGONIAN"

[illegible] North Pacific Coast New Year [illegible] 28x48 sheet [illegible]

These articles taken with editorials local news stories poems and the spirit of [illegible] Dr C H Atkinson make up a number of which the publisher may well be proud

THE OREGONIAN is a newspaper constructed and conducted on the plan of the best eastern dailies It is as live as the S F Chronicle without its speculative sensational character and more solid and readable than the Alta or Bulletin We consider it the best daily paper published on the Pacific coast and because it is so widely and so generally read in [illegible] territory, and because of some of the [illegible] which this number contains we devote some space to this notice of it and of its contents

And first concerning the Oregon exports. It has been a characteristic of Portland journalism since Oregon began to produce for the world's market to complain that California is in the habit of stealing her wheat and fruit and selling it as her own THE OREGONIAN with the rest has shown evidence of a keen sense of right and justice San Francisco never gave Oregon any credit for the grain which passed over her wharves Every pound of wheat that went out of the Golden Gate was credited to the Golden State We do not blame the Oregonians for this complaining San Francisco shippers could have kept a memoranda of the wheat brought in from the north and should have done so and then have given credit for it. With that, however we have nothing at present to do Our point now is that these people who have so keen a sense of right when they are wronged are totally obtuse when they are wronging others in exactly the same way

From the paper under review we learn that Oregon shipped during the year 2,457 [illegible] centals of wheat valued at $[illegible] 400 of wool 20 [illegible] bales, or about 7 000 000 lbs hops 4 720 bales salmon 344 [illegible] cases and the equivalent of about 1600 [illegible] barrels This merchandise went into the world's markets as the products of the great and growing state of Oregon As a matter of fact, however, a large share of it came from our wheat field in the Walla Walla valley and Palouse country the hops from the Puyallup and Yakima valleys the salmon from our side of the Columbia river and the wool from our pastures. Just what fraction of these products belong to us is somewhat difficult to determine One periodical says that Walla Walla county alone has shipped [illegible] tons of wheat this year We presume it is safe to say that one half the wheat more than three fourths the hops two fifths of the salmon, and a large fraction of the wool belong to Washington THE OREGONIAN has access to the information which would enable it to state exactly what portion of Portland's exports came from Washington Will it do it?

[THE OREGONIAN would cheerfully do this if it had the information or could obtain it. As it can not tell with accuracy it can only say that estimates show that about two fifths of the wheat crop is grown east of the Cascade mountains, most of which is in Washington but considerable part in Oregon —ED OREGONIAN]

Another article in these columns calls for a word It is "The Spirit of Portland" It pictures Portland as a maritime city chosen by Capt John H Couch in 184[illegible] with a traffic that equals that of cities in the interior states two or three times its size with ships from all seas at its wharves steamers which rival in riches the Spanish galleons of two centuries ago and railroads from all the chief valleys of the vast Columbia basin making their terminus there This process of exchange is a perpetual inflow of wealth, which even burdens the older class of operators with unlooked for cares and swells into proportions that extend with the increase of interior settlements

Its social status is a marvel "The sailor at mast head finds himself in the midst of the cottage homes or costlier mansions of four or five thousand quiet and happy families" Poverty is the exception, comfort the rule Twenty five churches indicate a religious spirit in its people and its morals hold a correspondingly high place

In most friendly relations this community dwell together while their names represent all the nationalities of America and Europe and many from Asia Africa and Polynesia It is as cosmopolitan as San Francisco and is permeated with brotherly love as Philadelphia In fine Portland is a fine city It has pluck grit bottom It prospers It is healthful but it has a ghost in its closet We could not have guessed in a thousand guesses what the ghost is. We do not need to guess at all We are told It is the Chinaman He saws and digs and washes irons and markets and makes and mends and quietly goes and comes at the call of weary matrons in kitchens and busy men on farms in the woods in mines, on steamers in shops and stores "But the smell of the drug is upon him, and he has introduced the 'social evil' and gambling and entices the young from paths of industry" and trains many of the fairest and noblest of both sexes to waste their money their health, their education their characters, and their peace of mind and so become 'helpless wrecks stranded in decay in the outset of life's voyage

If all of this fine writing represents truth Portland is a strange city as well as a fine one What the parents in all of those four or five thousand "cottage homes or costlier mansions" can be made of to be so happy and peaceable while their sons and daughters are thus being dragged away by vile Chinamen into dens of opium and infamy we cannot even conceive They must be a peculiar people indeed

But we find the venerable author's pet phrase ere he close It is a principle of late science that business makes business. And so Portland now is a sprouted growing germ of a New York by and by This is the outlook

TAXATION

PORTLAND Jan 30, 1880.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

My attention has been called to the article written by Mr Wm Reid and published in your issue of the 29th instant, which opens as follows

PORTLAND, Jan 28 1880

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Whoever the writer is that sent you that communication in this morning's paper to the effect (quoting his own words) that the Scottish Loan company hold a large amount in mortgages on Oregon property and their notes are all made payable in Dundee Scotland, and of course he says are not returned for taxation in Oregon either made a serious clerical or an intentional mistake In the first place all our notes have been since 187[illegible] and are now made payable in Oregon and second is our property is returned for taxation at Portland (less deduction of indebtedness in this state) precisely in the same way as the other banks in this city do the truth of which the writer referred to could easily have ascertained had he before singling us out as the only bank which did not pay taxes examined the assessor's rolls for either the county of Multnomah or the city of Portland or examined the books of the U S internal revenue office at Portland all which show the state county and city taxes paid by the various banks in this city as follows

ON PERSONAL PROPERTY—MONEY NOTES AND ACCOUNTS

1 First National Bank	None
2 Ladd & Tilton's Bank assessed at	$[illegible] 000
3 Bank of British Columbia assessed at	0.0
4 Bank British North America assessed at	0.0
5 Oregon & Washington Mortgage Savings Bank (ourselves) at	300 000

From the foregoing it would appear that [illegible] paid no taxes at least [illegible] [illegible] Mr Reid [illegible] National Bank [illegible] general government [illegible] in such bank [illegible] the report of the United States government [illegible] [illegible] what this bank pays in taxes—state county city and school and to national government The [illegible] tax [illegible] [illegible] per cent [illegible] therefore, [illegible] from Mr Reid's [illegible] pays no taxes [illegible] [illegible] conversant with the [illegible] taxation

BEET SUGAR

Not long since THE OREGONIAN published a letter from Puyallup W T which stated that the farmers of that valley were proposing to test the practicability of raising the sugar beet by planting this year not less than twenty acres in as many different farms. A premium of one hundred dollars is to be given for the best acre and fifty dollars for the second best. It is proposed to test the question whether good sugar beets can be grown in that soil. A small quantity raised there last year and sent as a sample to the Alvarado works in California produced excellent results and if like results are obtained on the greater scale to be employed this year the question will be regarded as settled that this great industry of beet sugar production may be successfully established there. It is not every soil which will produce beets that can be profitably worked. But where such soil is found the beet sugar industry may be developed into an immense and profitable business. Results in America are not yet equal to those reached in Europe but persons who have studied the subject do not doubt that this may yet be accomplished. The trouble has been with us that as yet only spasmodic efforts have been made to develop beet sugar production. On the other hand in Europe the subject has received attention since the year 1811. Governments have lent their encouragement and aid and immense capital has been employed in developing and conducting the business. Germany Austria and France have carried enterprise in this direction to most successful results. Austria alone, where the industry is probably less developed than in the other countries named produced in 18 8 enough beet sugar to supply her home demand and two million cental for export besides.

An association of the beet sugar manufacturers of Europe was held at Prague on the 4th May last. It was reported that the capital invested in two hundred and twenty-nine beet sugar factories which had been working during the year in machinery and buildings alone, amounted to the sum of 100 000 000 florins while the amount employed in the agricultural department—in raising the beets—far exceeded that sum. This gives an average capital to the factories of about 473 000 florins or $215 000. There are said to be at present time only four or five of those factories in operation in the United States. But the capital invested in all of them amounts to little more than is found necessary for one successful factory in Europe. Cheap labor, too, in Europe is another advantage. But it is not too much to say that the beet sugar business has never had a real trial in the United States.

The first beet sugar experiment in our country was made at Northampton, Mass., in the year 1834. But this is hardly counted among the factories which have been started in the United States. In 1861 a factory was started at Chatsworth Ill, whence it was removed some time afterward to Freeport in the same state. The next was at Fon du Lac, Wisconsin. After that followed the experiments at Alvarado and at Sacramento, in California. The former of these factories was removed to Soquel and is still in operation, the latter has been abandoned. There is a factory in operation at Portland, Maine, another at Wilmington, Delaware, and perhaps one other in the United States. The commissioner of agriculture is making promises of great results in the production of sugar from sorghum at cheap rates, and perhaps this fact may lead to further postponement of efforts to produce beet sugar, at least till it is seen what is to be done in this new direction.

Mr Meeker in his letter from Puyallup stated that the cost of producing beet sugar at the Alvarado works was now less than six cents a pound, and he has been there and made careful inquiry into the subject. The beets sent from Puyallup yielded eleven per cent. of sugar, while another sample sent to Prof Hilgard at Berkeley yielded thirteen per cent. The lowest of these is a good result. The average per cent. of sugar obtained from beets grown on bottom lands along the river Seine and in the province of Hanover, Germany, is 9 37 per cent., though it is stated that this is below the general average for the beet growing districts of Europe. It would seem that in a locality where the raw product may be obtained in such excellence as that noted in the samples produced at Puyallup time and capital should develop a great industry.

STILL NO SIGN.

Heretofore the democratic party has made aggressive campaigns. But now it is trying the policy of silence, secrecy and stealth. It commands a majority in both branches of congress, and yet is afraid to make a single movement. The session drags tamely on, in extremely sorry contrast with the confederate pyrotechnics of the last session. The party, it is clear, has abandoned all hope of "making capital" for the presidential contest. But can it hope to win unless it makes an aggressive fight? It has been put on the defensive by its follies and blunders, and seems unable to recover from blows which it received and which utterly dazed it just when it thought it was on the high road to conquest of the presidency. Now if it isn't going into the contest in an aggressive way it might as well relinquish its hopes from the start. For the party which is "out," and which is struggling to get possession of the government, must always be aggressive. Otherwise it has no reason to pretend to a real existence.

Just now, however, the party is trying by various devices of assumed innocence to obliterate its record on the national question. It raised this question in the extra session deliberately marking out for itself a retrogressive and revolutionary programme. It attempted to coerce the president into acquiescence in its revolutionary measures. It denied the power of the nation to prevent and punish fraud and violence at national elections. It denied the power of the nation to protect citizens in the enjoyment and exercise of their rights and privileges. It reasserted the doctrines out of which grew secession and rebellion. It now sees how great a mistake it was to do these things—till it had first obtained full possession of the government. Hence its present anxiety is to keep still in the hope that this record may be forgotten before the coming presidential election.

But it is impossible to obliterate the bad record of the last two sessions of congress. There was a contest which sticks in the public remembrance. The present dilemma of the party is a somewhat serious one. Should it continue its present course of timidity and hesitation it could not command the full active and earnest support of its adherents who want a war cry and will have one. Should it start the war cry—and it has no war cry but the old one—it would again bring down its head the wrath of the country. But it makes a mistake if it—or any party in its position which has an aggressive fight to make—thinks its strength is to sit still.

Mr Tilden is a funny and sly old fellow and not a little capricious in his attentions to the candidates now holding out hopes to one and now to another. One of the latest stories is that the deep deceiver of Cipher Alley has caused it to be reported by his closest friends that he does not favor either Randall or Bayard but is inclined to favor Gen McClellan; that he does not care himself to be again a candidate but would like to have the honor of [illegible] and naming the nominee. These same trusted friends add that when it [illegible] Tilden can be got out of the way and induced to subscribe $100 000 toward paying the campaign expenses. The men who undertake to engineer that little [illegible] will discover that they are babes in [illegible] before they have gone far.

Senator Hill recently created a sensation by giving the figures which as he claimed represented the taxable wealth of the colored people of Georgia. The democratic press [illegible] the north took the cue and made the most of the figures. The colored people [illegible] the accuracy of the count. They admit that on the face of the returns they are just as Mr Hill said they were, but they gravely suggest that their old horses blind mules and dilapidated plows and wagons would be considered valueless with white men as owners. The meaning of this is that they are being oppressed by unjust taxation.

The London Times in discussing the effect of Edison's electric light upon gas companies says: "Gas may survive Mr Edison's inventions and we hope and believe that it will survive them and be as profitable as ever to its dependents. But it must not expect to be exempted from the law of the survival of the fittest. If dim gas and sulphurous gas and dear gas are to disappear from the world we will confess in all truth that we shall part from them with no regret."

By our correspondence from Washington City as well as through information from Washington Territory we learn that Mr W W Newlin has been recommended for the position of register of the land office at Vancouver. He is very competent and ought to be appointed. Surely President Hayes if the matter is fairly stated to him will not reappoint the Kansas excrescence. This is a case in which there ought to be no difficulty in making a choice.

There is point in this from the New York World: "Both parties at Washington we hear are unwilling to provoke discussion of any important issue. If this is true the people ought to bring enough pressure to bear on the party leaders to force a discussion. There really are millions of people in the country who are not running for president, and whose aggregate welfare is much more important than that of any given aspirant."

COOS BAY IN EARLY TIMES.

Some Account of the Early Settlement and Settlers of Coos Bay—Historical Reminiscences, Etc

Not long since we received a pamphlet containing an account of the early settlement and settlers of Coos Bay. On looking it over we find that it presents a great number of historical reminiscences of that part of Oregon with personal sketches, description of eccentric characters and other interesting matter. The author, there may be reason to suppose, is S S Mann formerly county judge of Coos county. A [illegible], even though it be a partial summary of the contents of the pamphlet, will be received with interest by large numbers to whom the entire sketch is inaccessible and THE OREGONIAN is the more desirous to present such summary because it wishes to take every opportunity to call attention to that important part of our state than which no other part has greater resources or is destined to surer wealth and greatness.

Previous to 1853 as the writer says no white man had a residence on the fertile shores of Coos Bay. The aboriginal Indians alone enjoyed the wealth of game fish fruits and berries which were in such abundance as to make it an Indian paradise. Prior to that time the locality had indeed been visited by a few whites. A small schooner bound to Umpqua river entered Coos Bay by mistake in 1852, and remained for several weeks, hunting for the settlements. At length persons from the Umpqua learning their condition from the Indians, piloted them out of Coos Bay and into the place of their destination. During the summer of 1853 P B Marple, a resident of Jackson county made an exploration to the coast passing down the Coquille river. Learning the general character of Coos Bay from the Indians, he deemed it a valuable location. Returning to Jackson county, he formed a company of about forty persons, who, proceeding to Coos Bay, became the pioneers and early settlers of Coos county. Among these are mentioned Marple, Harris Jackson Lockhart, Coffin, Tolman, Noble and Boatman. Soon after their advent the discovery of gold sand mines at Randolph made a large addition to their number, and Empire City became the depot of supplies for a large mining population. Vessels with merchandise and men were attracted to it. In the end the mines proved less rich than was anticipated but the population and capital induced by the excitement remained, and was added to the permanence of the settlement. Among the settlers of this period are named Northrup & Symonds the originators of the Eastport coal mine; Rogers & Flanagan pioneers of the Newport coal mine; James Aiken the principal discoverer of these veins; A M Simpson and H H Luse, pioneer sawmill owners; Dr Foley, Yoakum, Winchester and others. The first coal was discovered at North Bend. Soon afterwards similar discoveries were made in several other places. On further exploration these discoveries were abandoned and the mines were opened at other points.

The lumber interest has always been an important industry at Coos Bay, though its growth of late years has not kept pace with former expectations. A M Simpson built the first saw mill. He has since built many vessels at the bay which have been employed in the large trade created by the numerous saw mills since erected.

In these early days angel women "uncertain, coy and hard to please" were commendably few and scarce. Bachelors balls were in the majority. The occupants were under the necessity of being their own cooks and housekeepers as well as attending to outdoor avocations. They could cuddle the imaginative girl I left behind me to their hearts and nothing more. An occasional ball gathered the few beauties young and old from far and near in some rough and ready room, brilliantly lighted with tallow dips. The fair and few [illegible] gorgeously in calico. The bachelors [illegible] arrayed in their [illegible] [illegible] in a blushing hopelessness [illegible] were proscribed as too pretentious. Whoever should dare to appear in one would have been the subject of ridicule. Freed from the ceremonious forms of fashionable life they tripped the light fantastic toe [illegible] early till daylight doth appear. The advent of a marriageable young lady [illegible] [illegible] sensation. All the bachelors [illegible] a chance in the [illegible] [illegible] prize. The fair one was [illegible] perplexed [illegible] among the many [illegible] [illegible] select her own time to [illegible] [illegible] lost to some happy [illegible] [illegible] female lov[illegible] ness and [illegible] made [illegible] [illegible]. There were many native [illegible] [illegible] who could be [illegible] [illegible] from their fond parents for a few pairs of blankets. Rather than live on hopelessly [illegible] fairer loves many embraced the opportunity and [illegible] then [illegible] will companions from the wigwams of the [illegible] [illegible] and lived [illegible] destiny without any marriage ceremony. Suddenly [illegible] [illegible] darkening the horizon [illegible] their domestic felicity. An order was issued from the Indian department that all the Indians at Coos Bay should be removed to the Siletz reservation. This order would ruthlessly include all those dusky companions to whom these men had become attached, turning them adrift again to solitary single life. These Indian maidens [illegible] [illegible] into their affections. They [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible] separation. Luckily [illegible] a happy discovery. Marriage would make them wives and American citizens beyond the control of Indian agents. The danger was imminent. The emissaries of the Indian department were gathering the Indians together for removal. There was a rush [illegible] to the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]
[illegible] Jan 31—12:30 A. M.—Pacific [illegible] coast clear or partly cloudy

CITY.

ARRESTED—Chief Lappeus received a dispatch from the city marshal of Independence, Polk county, yesterday morning which contained a description of George Muller, a harness maker of that place and authorizing his arrest on a charge of larceny. He was supposed to be a passenger on the morning train. Officers Collins, Clarke and Watson were detailed to make the arrest and on the arrival of the north bound train they apprehended a man answering the description. He gave his name as Spencer. A pocketbook was discovered on his person on the fly leaf of which was traced in pencil the words "George Muller." This being considered very suspicious and the prisoner unable to give a satisfactory account of himself he was held. Last evening Chief Lappeus received another dispatch from the city marshal stating that he would arrive this morning on the train.

THE CASE DISMISSED.—A few days ago Wm. Tousan, a young man who resides in Vancouver where he is engaged in business, was arrested on a requisition issued by Gov. Thayer charged with the larceny of a pair of boots. The theft was alleged to have been committed about three years ago. Mr Tousan was brought to this city and Thursday the case was set for trial before Justice [illegible]. It was shown satisfactorily to the justice and Deputy District Attorney Mulkey that the charge was entirely unsupported by testimony, and on motion of the latter Justice Davis dismissed the case and discharged the defendant.

EAST PORTLAND FOURTH STREET BRIDGE.—City Surveyor Campbell, of East Portland, is prepared, by direction of the board of [illegible], plans for rebuilding eighty feet of [illegible] end of the Fourth street bridge which for some time past has not been considered safe. The cost is estimated at $1000. The plan will be submitted to the board at their regular meeting next Monday evening. The rebuilding of the bridge interests the real [illegible] of Columbia slough and Vancouver and it is to be hoped that the board will vote to proceed with the work at once.

LOOK OUT, BOYS!—There are at the present time a large number of robins and larks about the city, and we are informed that many of them have recently been killed by boys. For the protection of these innocent little creatures the common council passed an ordinance a few years ago punishing by fine and imprisonment the wanton killing of these birds. Energetic lads who have been indulging in this kind of cruel sport had better proceed with a little more caution or some of these days they will find themselves in trouble.

HEALTH IN SCHOOLS.—The second lecture in the course on social science will be given Wednesday evening next. There will be presented an abstract of a paper by Dr D F Lincoln, of Boston, on "The Nervous System as Affected by School Life." This paper, for its wisdom and fairness, has received the commendation of a very large number of specialists and educators, and deserves special attention on the part of physicians, parents and teachers. Orchestral music will precede and follow the lecture.

ASKING FOR AID.—Subscription papers are being circulated among the merchants of this city and East Portland, asking for assistance toward building a road from Forest Grove to the mouth of Beaver creek, on the Nehalem river, for the benefit of the residents of Nehalem valley. It has been found more expedient and more economical to cut a new road than to clear the road to St Helens. Portland merchants should show their characteristic liberality toward the worthy farm [illegible] of that section.

BADLY BEATEN.—A rather bloody fight occurred in East Portland Thursday in one of the saloons of that place between J Culley and J. Allen. In the fight Allen was very roughly handled. From all the circumstances it seems that the assault was an unprovoked one on the part of Culley. He was arrested and fined $30 and costs in Justice Matlock's court. On another charge of assault Culley was fined $5 and costs in the recorder's court.

TILLAMOOK ROCK.—A few days ago Capt. Denny, of Astoria, ran his little boat the Mary Taylor, alongside of Tillamook Rock and landed three months supplies and five men. This reinforcement increased the working force on the rock to nineteen, all of whom are in good health. Capt. Denny reports that work is progressing satisfactorily though much embarrassed and delayed by the storms of the past few weeks.

THE CHARITY BALL.—The ball given at [illegible] Hall last night under the auspices of the Ladies' Relief Society, drew a very large and fashionable assemblage—one of the [illegible] gathered in the city. The dresses worn by the ladies were more than ordinarily elegant, the music under the leadership of Prof. Chas. Bray excellent, the supper good and the enjoyment all that could be desired.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A very pleasant and profitable time may be anticipated at the temperance meeting to night at the Y M C A Hall. The meeting will be addressed by Dr J. W. Watts, of Oregon City. His subject will be "Life, Liberty and Happiness." Other interesting exercises will be held. Persons who desire seats should come before 7:30, and thus avoid the rush.

INJURED BY FROST.—It is reported that the late frost has caused considerable damage to young fruit trees in this vicinity. Mr H. Hanson, the East Portland nurseryman, says that all the fruit trees that he has counted in his orchard and nursery are injured. He will lose about $5000. His neighbors are also damaged more or less.

UNITARIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.—This school is enjoying a season of great prosperity. At the last teachers' meeting resolutions calling for six new teachers, and "overflowing" new classes into the main church were [illegible]. On February 22d the anniversary meeting of the school will be held in the church.

A RAILROAD LABOR CONTRACT.—Kwong Tai & Co merchants of this city, have contracted with the O. R. & N. Co to furnish all the Chinese labor which it may require in railway construction, soon to commence. He will bring a company of about one thousand China men from California within the next few days.

LARD THIEF.—Last Thursday evening some sneak thief broke into a workshop belonging to D. L. Shepeard, on Columbia slough and stole 75 pounds of splendid lard. Mr Shepeard is very anxious to find out the color of the man's hair who stole his lard.

ARRESTED.—Deputy United States Marshal Burns brought down from McMinnville yesterday a man named John Collins who was arrested on a charge of selling liquor to Indians. Collins is in jail where he will remain until his case is disposed of.

LETTER LIST.—The following letters remain uncalled for at the office of Wells Fargo & Co. Miss Adeline Herman Bomister F. Clara Mrs. Robert Eckford A French, Mr Jennie Hardy, Homer Koon.

REGULAR MEETINGS.—Bethel Home Lodge No. 1, Independent Order of Good Templars of the World holds regular meetings in Bethel Hall, at 7 30 P M.

MAIL.—The steamer Geo W Elder brought up 102 sacks of paper mail and 13 pouches of letters. The clerks made things very animated for a time.

There has been quite a change made in the lodging house corner of Second and Oak streets. Mrs Elkins is now manager, having bought the house. We think she thoroughly understands the business and predict for her a prosperous future.

THE NEW SEASON

The New Market Theater will open its doors [illegible] on Monday evening when Mr [illegible] will make his first appearance in Gilbert's comedy of Engaged [illegible] marriage in which several [illegible] to Portland with [illegible] will appear. Mr [illegible] having played star [illegible] engagements in nearly all the principal eastern and southern theaters. He played [illegible] engagement on [illegible] at the Fifth Avenue Theater New York [illegible] This party was [illegible] and the [illegible] which [illegible] engagement [illegible] of the California Theater to [illegible] Christmas [illegible]. The seven sisters [illegible] was on the point of [illegible] east when Mr Maguire [illegible] engagement with him for an appearance [illegible] city. Miss [illegible] Granville who was the leading soubrette at the California Theater and [illegible] knowledged [illegible] of the best on the stage is engaged. Mr William Simms who was first comedian of the California has also accepted a similar position here. Mr [illegible] has been engaged in the same theater for a number of years. Miss Annie Adams and Mr Lindsay as well as Miss Douglas are well known for their ability and need no further comment. This strong company we understand will be reinforced on the arrival of the next steamer with Miss Cameron Messrs Doyle and Manning, and Mr John R. [illegible] the well known scenic artist.

John Maguire has certainly been earnest in his exertions to furnish to [illegible] first class legitimate attractions and he should in his managerial ventures receive a [illegible] and hearty support from the citizens.

ENFORCE THE LAW

Mr Lloyd Brooke's Grounds Damaged by a Cattle Stampede—An Ordinance which it would be Well to Enforce.

Bands of loose cattle are almost daily driven through the public streets to the great peril of people constantly passing and in flagrant violation of city law. Yesterday morning a band of beeves being driven down Washington st took fright when opposite the residence of Mr Lloyd Brooke and breaking down the fence enclosing his grounds rushed in, doing serious havoc on his shrubs and lawns. It happened that no person was in the way of the stampede but the fate of ladies or children should any have been in its course may be easily imagined. The incident is a strong argument in favor of the strict enforcement of the following ordinance.

Ordinance No 2003, entitled "An ordinance regulating the driving of cattle through the streets" approved June 20, 187[illegible] "That no person or persons shall drive or cause to be driven, any cattle except milch cows through any public street north of Hall street, east of Ninth street and North Tenth street, and south of G street except Jefferson street, and Front and North Front streets between the hours of 6 in the morning and 12 at night. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the police judge shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50 or by imprisonment in the city jail not less than two nor more than ten days."

CITY ASSESSMENT ROLL.

After weeks of arduous labor Mr W J Kelly city assessor, has completed the assessment roll for 1879 and placed the same in the hands of Mr Durham, auditor and clerk. From Mr Kelly we have obtained the following recapitulation of the assessable property of Portland. To show the comparative increase of property we also publish the recapitulation taken from the assessment roll of 1878

	1879	1878
Value of lands	$ 101 250	$ 82,350
Value of lots	4 668 600	3 958 925
Value of improvements	3 603 950	3 163 350
Value of lots and improv mts	7 778 800	7, 53 625
Value of personal property	5 330 600	5 156 850
Gross value of property	13 109,400	12 310 475
Indebtedness	8 312 150	3 7 600
Taxable property	[illegible]	[illegible]

From this comparative statement it will be seen that the total increase in the taxable property is $606 375 the increase in the gross value of all property $901 675 and increase in indebtedness $132,550

The roll will remain in the hands of the auditor until that officer can compute and carry out the amount of taxes due from each individual taxpayer. This will probably require a week or more. When this work shall have been completed the assessment roll will be turned over to Joseph Buchtel city treasurer, who will furnish all taxpayers his autograph.

UP THE COLUMBIA

For the past week the weather up the Columbia has been cold enough to lead to the belief that navigation would soon close. Anticipating such a result, the O S N Co have declined to receive freight for points up the river. Boats are still running, but how long they will continue to do so is a question as yet unsolved.

Last evening at 6 o clock the following dispatches were received.

Celilo—Clear, thermometer 42 rain fall one inch

Cascades—Cloudy; wind from the north west thermometer 31

Dalles—Cloudy thermometer 40 up stream wind

Umatilla—Thermometer 34, cloudy, no wind

CORVALLIS AND YAQUINA BAY

A GLANCE AT THE NEW RAILROAD.

Interview with an Intelligent Citizen of Benton as to its Future Prospects—Some Interesting Facts

The Proposed Road from Corvallis to the Bay.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

CORVALLIS Or Jan [illegible]

The southern terminus of the Western Oregon railway is happy over her new acquisition [illegible] the [illegible] men met they [illegible] each other with the same [illegible] that New Year [illegible] to feel [illegible] of pride at a new [illegible] towards [illegible]

SECTION OF THE ROAD

[illegible] under which the road was built are taken into consideration—the [illegible] the very heavy rain which followed then the wind storm [illegible] blockading the road for [illegible] heavy snows [illegible] the [illegible] encountered [illegible] in excellent [illegible] in the face of [illegible] it was finished before spring. No small share of praise is due to Messrs I D Clarke superintendent of construction and Harry Halberset roadmaster for the early completion of the road. From McCoy's six miles north [illegible] within three miles of this city the road is not as smooth as persons with end [illegible] nerves might wish it but it is far better than for instance the Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago road was when first built and equal in every respect to the average new railroads through Illinois. The whole length of the road will be thoroughly ballasted next summer. The gravel for that purpose will be taken from a bar in the Willamette near Independence which will be reached by half a mile of railroad and trestle. The gravel is of the best quality but will not be accessible until low water. A switch will be finished this week at the crossing of the narrow gauge road four miles south of McMinnville by means of which the cars of both roads can be brought side by side and freight transferred with slight expense. I predict that within two years the run will be made from Portland to Corvallis within four hours. The following is the time card of the passenger train and table of distances

THE YAQUINA BAY ROAD

The people of Corvallis are imbued with the belief that their city is the avenue through which the grain raised in the southern portion of the Willamette valley must pass to reach the seaboard. The foregoing statement has possibly been seen in print before but that thought is uppermost in the mind of every citizen of the place and will bear repetition. The persons most interested are engaged now in obtaining signatures to the memorial published in THE OREGONIAN of the 28th inst. If only a moderate appropriation is made for deepening the entrance to Yaquina bay a railroad from Corvallis to the bay is a certainty for the near future. Capital necessary to complete the road already commenced by the citizens, will be furnished either from California or from England without delay.

A DISINTERESTED VIEW

It is only natural that the old residents of Corvallis and Benton county should feel a deep interest in the future of their portion of the state and be prejudiced in its favor regardless of any just claims for recognition, but the judgment of a man coming into the county studying it and seeking an investment in business pursuits would be free from all bias. And when the views of one who would naturally be inclined to cynicism agree with those of the enthusiastic and self interested such views should be accepted, to say the least, as confirmatory. I called on Mr James Readman an Englishman of wide experience who came to Corvallis last July, and after visiting nearly every portion has concluded to go into business here. In order to obtain his ideas of Benton county I asked

How did it happen that of all the places in Oregon, you chose this county as a business location?

"Because," said Mr Readman in a quiet, confident tone, "it is not within reason to suppose that the entire product of a great grain growing valley like the Willamette will always be sent through one channel especially when the channel is not a direct one. The natural outlet to the sea for the product of that portion of the valley south of Salem, is through Benton county to Yaquina Bay and it is only a matter of time for such an outlet to be opened with Corvallis as the rail road center."

If a railroad should be built to Yaquina bay and the entrance improved by the removal of the ledge of rock will the bay accommodate much shipping?" I asked. It has been stated that the bay when the tide is out is no more than a good sized pond.

He answered, whenever Yaquina bay will not furnish good anchorage for all the vessels required to carry the products of this valley it will do more maritime business than San Francisco is doing now. I will load a vessel with lumber for China within two months at the Onea ta mills, about six miles from the sea and she will have a fathom of water under her keel when her cargo is complete."

Mr Readman in an hour's conversation expressed the utmost confidence in a bright future for Corvallis, and bases his belief on the grounds advanced by the older residents, and which are generally known.

GENERAL NOTES

The fruit interest of Benton county which has been neglected in past years will be revived during the coming season. Messrs Readman & Nash have engaged nearly all the fruit which will be dried this summer for direct exportation to England.

The English colony in Benton county is gradually increasing in numbers. That they are pleased with the country is evidenced by the fact that they have made purchases of lands and have advised friends and relatives in England to join them here.

A gentleman whose business requires him to travel in all portions of the country informed me that the winter wheat and oats were in excellent condition.

Mr Wallis Nash has bought the farm of S Rayburn on Rock Creek and will convert it with several sections already owned by him into a stock ranch on the Australian plan. He has commenced building a family residence on the ranch. N. J. L.

Over-Exertion, either of body or mind produces debility and disease. The usual remedy is to take some stimulant the effect of which is the same as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true way is to fortify the system with a permanent tonic like the Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) which gives strength and vigor to the whole system

THE DEATH-RATE OF

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming the average of life being lessened every year without any reasonable cause death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it, and often find too late that a Fever or Lung trouble has set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken a cure would have resulted and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950 000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known

An [illegible] suffering [illegible]

WILL YOU LIVE OR DIE?

Easy as it is to be sick, just so easy is it to be well by availing yourself of the opportunity that is now offered to the sick by

DR. D HALL McLENNAN

Professor of Diseases of the Mind and Nervous System formerly of Hall's Medical Institute Boston Mass now permanently located at corner of Second and Ash streets Portland Oregon two blocks from O S N Co's landing at foot of Ash St

DR McLENNAN has by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice. And without boasting he can say that probably no other physician on the Pacific Coast is treating at the present time so many cases of chronic diseases. The development of important and superior remedial agents and modes of cure have enabled him to succeed in thousands of cases where others have failed. The unparalleled success with which Dr McLennan has treated difficult and the so-called incurable cases goes to show that no one should give up in despair, simply on the assertion of one, two or three physicians who had failed to effect a cure. It is with the hope of reaching many of this class that I advertise, and not alone from the profit it may deservedly yield me, but for the real satisfaction of doing good relieving the pains of humanity and sending hope to the hearts of thousands of afflicted fellow creatures who are enduring great suffering under the erroneous impression that they are beyond human skill. These I am resolved shall hear of me and realize the truth of the saying that "while there is life there is hope."

Startling Weakness of Men and Women,

From whatever cause produced permanently and radically cured in three to six weeks—a radical change for the better noticed in three days. Old men made young and young men restored to the vigor of manhood. To those who are suffering I advise them to try me. In doing so they will call that day blessed. The greatest secrecy observed. Names of such patients are not published, and only referred to by permission and by calling at my office. If you are suffering from any chronic disease and your doctors have failed to cure you I respectfully invite you to consult me. It will cost you nothing. By modern system of cure I am constantly relieving cases in which other methods utterly fail. Physicians having in charge cases that baffle their skill or resist the ordinary treatment will confer a blessing on such by sending them to my Medical Institution occupying the two story building on the [illegible] corner of Second and Ash streets

Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Letters plainly written with full particulars containing a [illegible] stamp will be promptly answered.

Flattering Indorsement

From a lady well and favorably known in Portland, cured by Dr McLennan after hope of recovery had been abandoned

WASHINGTON D C—I am entirely well and feel no more of that weakness that troubled me for years, and for which I was unable to get relief until you brought me to Dr McLennan's. He has done more for me than all the other physicians put together and that too in so short a time.
MRS. MAJOR BELL

Any information regarding this remarkable cure will be furnished by her mother (Mrs Edgar) who lives at Room No 2[illegible] building second st between Oak and Stark Portland

Another Remarkable Cure

Was the case of O P Mason who suffered for years with a weak and lame back during that period could find no relief. Was cured by Dr McLennan in ten minutes

NOTE—Mr Mason is well and favorably known to all citizens of Portland as one of our most successful lawyers. His office is 1[illegible] First street and can verify this statement for himself

Success the Test of Merit—Another Remarkable Cure.

This is to certify that Dr McLennan cured me of consumption and catarrh, after Drs Oliver and Hatch of Astoria had pronounced my case beyond medical aid and advised me to come to Portland and go to the hospital. I came to Portland but did not go to the hospital as a friend who met me here advised me to go to Dr McLennan. This was two months ago. I was then continually coughing up blood and matter. I have cough d none for five weeks and am fleshing up every day. I now live at 49 Stark street but my home is in Astoria. If anybody writes to me concerning my cure I will answer the same.
Respectfully E K DAILY

The following parties whose names and addresses are given below, can be consulted in reference to Dr McLennan's great success. They have all been the victims of wrong doctoring and never found relief, much less a cure until Dr McLennan's treated them. Mrs Daniel Cline Scappoose Oregon gained 19 pounds in two months under Dr McLennan's treatment. She says "I have never felt so well for three years as I have the last two months."

Mrs Captain Lincoln of the ship Tecumseh now stopping at room 7 St Charles Hotel suffered for 6 years with debility dyspepsia and chronic inflammation of the stomach. She had doctored in England and France and employed with no success some of the most eminent physicians in America. Completely cured by Dr McLennan in [illegible] weeks.

REMOVED. THE COMPOUND OXYGEN TREATMENT FOR THE CURE OF ALL CHRONIC DISEASES.

PROF REES has fitted up offices on corner of Yamhill and First Sts.—No. 174, Room 2.

COMPOUND OXYGEN DOES NOT CURE BY THE SUBSTITUTION OF ONE DISEASE FOR ANOTHER as when drugs are taken, but by an orderly process of revitalization. In the following list will be found the diseases which have proved the most amenable to Oxygen treatment: Consumption, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Asthma. Dyspepsia in worst forms can be stopped with the Oxygen. Any fever can be stopped in 24 hours. Catarrh in the worst stages of the disease, Dyspepsia in every form, may be radically cured also Neuralgia, Nervous Headache, Scrofula, Paralysis and all Nervous Diseases.

PORTLAND Or, Jan. 11, 1880—This is to certify that I have tried all kinds of Patent Medicines, which have failed as a cure in my case (I having a bad cold, which had settled on my lungs), when I was induced to try Prof. Rees' Compound Oxygen Treatment, which had the desired effect in two days, and in five days' treatment was completely restored to my sound health. JOHN ROBERTSON.

PORTLAND Or Jan 13 1880—Having taken treatment from Prof. Rees for a severe cold in the head, so bad that I could not breathe through my nostrils, and so severe on the lungs that I could not speak, when I was forced by friends to try the Compound Oxygen, with very little faith, but the first inhalation made me breathe freely, and I am convinced that it is the best and quickest method known for to cure disease and I cheerfully recommend it to all who are suffering from a Cold or Catarrh in the head.

THE SCIENCE OF MATERIALIZATION

AN ENTHUSIASTIC SPIRITIST'S SERMON ON SPIRITISM

Whilst Morse and Field are enabling us to send our thoughts under seas and over lands around our world and up and down among all nations by means of the electric wire whilst Edison decarbonizes a horseshoe magnet of paper and subdues the swift lightnings to a household candle or makes a set speech on tinfoil deliver itself audibly ten thousand miles away is it so wonderful and so past all degree of credibility that other scientists dwelling on other shores should be able to use the same kindred elements in nature to combine disintegrate and recombine matter with those laws of life that are but a short distance beyond the experiment of Field and Edison?

Yet here in our midst is a feeble woman (M C M Sawyer, lately of San Francisco) who from infancy has had the world admitted gift of second sight and who has devoted all her life to demonstrate the immortality of the souls of men and women and [illegible] ch dhood This woman whose wrists and arms are scarred and partially paralyzed from the rude tyings of skeptics and bigots and who is a living martyr to this science of materialization which she has published in many lands now submits herself to be chained to the walls of a room or a cabinet by passing the chain around her neck—leaving only room for her breath to pass—the ends put through holes and fastened outside, in the constant view of the audience and she may be chained around the waist at the same time in the same manner

Then when the audience knows that it is not, and cannot be herself there immediately appears at the curtain the full length forms of large bearded men, and all sizes of women and children—the departed—the dead that have gone from among us We see their faces their robes they speak to us in the tones they used on earth they come in regalia, they give the signs and grips of their orders to brethren in the audience they read you your thoughts they call your names and tell you all the events of your lives In short, the departed are returned, the dead are alive, the loved and lost are found, the mourning are comforted and all this is done by the scientific mingling of laws and matter For be it remembered there is no getting outside of God's laws, either in mind or matter,

These laws are not hidden, they are not patented, nor purposely wrapt in mystery And so far as persons capable of receiving and explaining them have lent themselves to the heavenly artisans they have been explained. But other sciences and explorations meet many of these facts It is now admitted by all that all space and all planets are filled with terrestrial electricity, which is the power and force of their motion, and is the Almighty arm that upholds the universe." They are also filled with terrestrial magnetism, the uses, purposes, direction and mental government of those powers and forces the ever pervading and omnipotent will of God These forces, acting in man, as a part of this planet, become vital electricity and vital magnetism, and, subject to his spirit, connect him to infinity and are his deific messengers, servants and forces.

As man is an epitome or microcosm of the universe and of the planet of where he is born, his rehabilitation in an earthly form embraces all planetary laws and conditions—the cycle, the magnet, the electrode the mineral, the animal, the human and the spiritual. Boasting human science stops with matter, it finds cohered atoms and experiments with timber, rocks and strata, and seeks to go no further, and laughs at those who would find the laws and principles involved in those wonderful and unlimited cohesions. It does admit that the magnet will seize the negative poles of ferriginous iron sands and hold them out straight in its invisible fingers, and that is about as far as it goes. It does not ask what is the life of that tree, the sensation of that animal, the intelligence of that human, the immortality of that spirit. Yet in all the ages of the world the apparational has been chronicled, has been evidenced and believed. If it were ever true it is true yet, for the same laws exist now as then. The cycle or form of the planet is first necessary for materialization The audience, with the medium, form the negative pole of a magnet, of which the spirit band of the medium is the positive. This battery now generates vital electricity and vital magnetism, and all the elements of matter are thus placed subject to the will power and intelligence of the controlling spirits. By vital magnetism they seize the next lower condition, vital electricity, or the life and motive forces of the circle, and use them as they desire. They can disintegrate particled matter. They can disengage polarities of atoms, and reunite them They draw from the living organisms present their vital or life forces, and combine them upon the spirit attributes and form, and reincarnate them to the sight and touch of the audience. These atoms are then depolarized and restored to the medium and her audience by the same will and power that had impinged them on the spirit In the earth life, human spirits are clothed, so to say, in flesh, for spirit, being laws and principles, can never be visible except as it is chemically associated with matter, as its garment and expression. These seances afford that chemical condition and materialization, or reincarnation is only a beautiful and truthful law of nature, assuring man of his finite but immortal relationship with the infinite God.

DIRECTIONS FOR FORMING AND CONDUCTING CIRCLES.

Persons going to these circles should be cleanly in their person and free as possible from alcohol and tobacco. They should sit, male and female, or positive and negative alternately. They should join hands or hold a wire that conducts to the medium They should be passive and willing to learn; and it assists greatly to sing beautiful songs, such as "Sweet Bye-and Bye," "We are Waiting at the River," "Nearer My God to Thee," &c., all sweet religious songs, that tell of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, avoid all creedisms and antagonisms be harmonious and not anxious Remember you are in a circle that reaches into the angel world. Don't think of being rude to the angel visitors Don't break the circle, it snaps the electric cord, and detaches the armature from the magnet, Opposing wills and fierce unbelief injure the circle They are detracting magnets Don't attempt to hold on to the hands or seize the form that comes to assure you of your immortality You injure the dematerialization Be patient In a little while, in a few sittings the evidence will all be given to you. Your spirit friends wait only until it is best for you—only a short time if you are kind and patient and live rightly. You have hoped and prayed and tried to believe from other sources, but now you shall know by irrefragable proof, by testimony stronger than anything on earth that your dear father or mother, sister or brother, or beloved one, or smiling infant is safely housed in heaven And you, "when life's fitful fever is over" you shall sing with the poet, yes in all your earth life too,

I shall see them stand on the shining strand,
Their white arms over the sea
To welcome my sail, with the boatman pale,
As I near the shores of eternity

You shall be satisfied that in that blessed summer land the dissevered ties of earth will be reunited there, to wander amid amaranthine bowers where the roses and lilies of deathless love bloom forever in the gardens of God and the cities of immortality

KEY'S YOUNG MAN

THE VALUABLE ADVICE WHICH MARK TWAIN GAVE HIM

One of Mark Twain's latest productions is a letter giving his opinion of private secretaries in which he sits down rather hard upon Mr Kirby private secretary to Postmaster-General Key The letter has caused a great deal of amusement among Mr Kirby's associates in the Postoffice, and that gentleman feels very much torn up in consequence, and probably will not be anxious to tackle the subject again, at least not for some time Some days ago Mr Kirby took occasion to write a letter to Mr Clemens in which he had the temerity to criticise some comments made by the gentleman upon a recent order of the Postoffice Department Mr Kirby feliciously inclosed a tract, issued by the department, saying that it was to meet just such hardened cases as yours and I also send you a copy of the postal laws and hope you will take the trouble to look into the matter thoroughly" It seems by the letter received in reply, that Mr Clemens did look into the matter thoroughly and Mr Kirby now thinks that he made too searching a study of it Among other things in his letter Mr Clemens says

My allow friend wh [illegible] the effervescence of youth and a quir [illegible] but of worldly experience you will cease to make mistakes like that [illegible] recognize the simple wisdom of minding your own business [illegible] You seem to think [illegible] States that has been called [illegible] There is a difference [illegible] overlooked [illegible] I will point it out [illegible] Grave [illegible] publ [illegible] You are [illegible] supply [illegible] You [illegible] perceive The thing I am trying [illegible] sum [illegible] The newspaper slip [illegible] I will return [illegible] private [illegible] I keep [illegible] but for display

Speaking of the envelope in which Mr Kirby's letter was inclosed Mark says

You in an official private [illegible] have written me an entirely personal letter inclosed in an envelope bearing upon its surface in plain print the warning "A penalty of $300 is fixed by law for using this envelope for other than official business" The servants of the government ought to be, for decency's sake, among the last to break its laws

You have committed an offense with no elements of a joke about it and if your superior does his duty he will impose the penalty involved As far as I am concerned you are safe but if you intrude upon me again I may be tempted to bring you before the courts for violation of law There, now receive my blessing Go and do not mix in other people's business any more otherwise you may pick up somebody who will feed you disagreeable words instead of sugar

The Oldest Newspaper in the World

A Hongkong journal furnishes some particulars concerning the Peking Gazette the oldest periodical in the world Its circulation is estimated at 100 000 There are ten publishers in Canton each of whom employs about ten distributors so that there are 100 distributors in the city and suburbs alone The Gazette is printed from moveable types and each publisher takes a certain number of copies It's delivered every two days to subscribers who are of two classes The first retain the pamphlet and pay about 20 cents a month the second pay about half that sum and return the Gazette to the distributor the next time he comes around Together with it is delivered the local "official sheet" the matter of which is collected from the yamens daily This is printed from wax blocks, which are then remelted and available for another day's issue

Little that is new is to be found in the local markets to-day Wheat buyers are not inclined to make any advance nor are holders disposed to accept current rates We note the departure of several vessels wheat laden for Europe Others at hand under engagement will have quick dispatch while a very considerable quantity of grain is now stored here which is intended for vessels now over due Taking into account the very bad weather and the obstructions to navigation and land transportation which have occurred during the month the movement of vessels and grain has been quite large.

From the annual review of the commerce of this port, contained in the Commercial Reporter of this date, we collate some facts not heretofore published, the wheat exports from August 1 1879 to January 1, 1880 (flour reduced to wheat) were as follows, in short tons

	1878	1879
To United Kingdom	61 728	75 099
San Francisco	19 790	11,358
British Columbia	1 221	2 233
Puget Sound and Alaska	1 682	3,275
Honolulu	469	00
Total shipments to January 1	84 891	92 055

The receipts of leading articles of domestic produce at this port for 1879 were as follows that from the Willamette valley being shown in the first column of figures, and those from east of the Cascades in the second, totals in the third

	Willamette Valley	East of Cascades	Total
Wheat sacks	815,986	491,804	1,307 790
Flour bbls	292,761	63,100	355 860
Oats sacks	99 751		99 751
Wool lbs	2 030,191	4 766 207	6 797,398

The above table includes about 9000 tons of wheat from east of the Cascades, shipped directly to Astoria Reducing the flour to wheat the receipts from the Willamette valley amount to 92 532 tons from east of the Cascades, 40,486 tons, total 133 018 tons or nearly four and a half million bushels There is however believed to be a much larger surplus in the interior than at the corresponding date last year

EASTERN FREIGHTS AND MARKETS

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK, Jan 30—The freight market remains very quiet and there is no movement of especial moment. The A D Snow is the loading vessel and will be full in a day or two The C O Whitmore is put down for the 10th prox Rates firmer at last quotations owing to a reduction of tonnage on berth and the difficulty of securing vessels to follow

Overland freights have been moderately active for the season and shipments the past week amount to 6969 packages including 350 kegs of pickled fish 737 packages tobacco six cases figs 40 packages dates, 142 packages raisins 202 cases baking powder 50 bales cloves 50 cases canned meat 24 cases codfish 50 cases canned goods, 50 cases milk, 3 boxes prunes 20 cases oil 452 bars steel rails In reference to a reported rupture between the Pacific Mail Co and the Pacific railroads it is well known by Californians that there has been no freighting arrangement between them since May last although the railroads have made repeated offers to the Mail Company for such all of which have been rejected The Mail Company now feel that as they have been able to do a first class business during the past eight months without any assistance from outside parties that they can continue to do so especially as they have favorable contracts with the Panama Railroad However there is one great drawback that an outside public do not see and that is that the company have not got steamers enough either on the Atlantic or Pacific, to do the increased business nor are there any vessels here that can be had for this purpose Hence it is not likely that the company will make active opposition at present, but will continue, as heretofore, to take such freight as will pay them best. In the meantime it is reported that the company will build several steamers especially adapted to the carrying trade and will when they are completed make an active and bitter war if no compromise has been effected of which rumors are already afloat Of course merchants and shippers look upon the opposition with favor no matter how short lived it may prove as it will result to their [illegible] The Pacific railroad officials pooh pooh the whole affair while the Mail company's officers are rather reticent. Many people look upon the whole matter as a periodical sensation for stock gambling purposes

Markets generally dull Breadstuffs de[illegible] the steadiness of the past few days again lost as the shipping demand did not keep up and only a few orders were executed at two cents decline on wheat.

English Markets

LIVERPOOL Jan 30—A leading grain [illegible] says a majority of the wheat markets [illegible] past few days again report slow sales at an average reduction of a shilling per quarter a few [illegible] nominally maintaining previous prices Floating cargoes in consequence of the renewed upward movement in America exhibited a hardening tendency and an improvement of six pence per quarter was obtainable for red winter [illegible] rather more inquiry for arrivals but offers are too low to tempt sellers. At Liverpool and [illegible] ing markets since Tuesday business in wheat has been quiet at slightly under Tuesday's rates [illegible] steadily sold To-day's market scantily attended and limited business was done in wheat at Tuesday's rates Flour was difficult to sell and prices nominally unchanged, Corn in consequence of liberal supplies in only moderate demand and declined half a penny per cental

[illegible] LANDS,

PEN D'OREILLE DIVISION.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY

Is now offering for sale nearly

5 000,000

Acres of its lands in the Pen d O eille Division in Eastern Oregon which are comprised in the odd numbered sections for forty miles on each side of the railroad as now located from the mouth of Snake River in Washington Territory to Lake Pen d'Oreille in Idaho These lands of unexcelled fertility and adapted to farming on any scale that may be desired, are offered by the Railroad Company at such prices and terms as cannot fail to induce settlement and cultivation causing a rapid growth in population of the country and increase in value to those who now purchase.

The following resolution of the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company passed November 19th, 1879, fixes the cash price of land to actual settlers at two dollars and sixty cents per acre which it is believed is a lower price than has ever been voluntarily placed upon its lands by any land grant company This is in fact cheaper than the settler can purchase the same class of land of the Government under the pre-emption law for the expense attending the making of final proof and the journey to the land office which he must necessarily make in order to complete his entry is more than the ten cents per acre added to the government price by the Railroad Company

"Resolved That the Agricultural Lands of the Company west of the Missouri river to Puget Sound shall be offered for sale to actual settlers at Government price of $2 50 per acre with an addition thereto of ten cents per acre to be paid to the Company to reimburse it for the cost of selecting surveying and conveying said land

This resolution does not apply to coal or iron lands nor to lands chiefly valuable for timber, nor to lands required for town sites or suitable for manufacturing sites nor in regions where water is scarce to lands containing springs or other natural supply where it shall be for the interest of settlers at large that such water privileges shall not be exclusively held or controlled by any individual nor to the lands required or the use of the Company in connection with the operation of the road

To persons wishing to purchase on time the remarkably low price of four dollars per acre is given on the following terms One fourth cash at time of purchase the balance in three equal yearly payments at 7 per cent interest The above price for time sales is adopted for the present but may be subject to change in the future

All persons who have filed with the Railroad Company notices of intention to purchase or "Settlers Applications" as they are called for land in this Division (except for the class of lands reserved by the terms of the resolution above given) and who have continued to reside upon or cultivate the land applied for, are requested to complete their purchase by making cash payment or time contract for the same For this purpose application should be made to the Railroad Land Office at Colfax

Persons who have not made actual settlement or improvement upon land they may have applied for have no right to the first privilege of purchase such lands will be sold to the first applicant Those persons who have in good faith settled upon and improved the Company's land should lose no time in securing the same as after a given time the land is subject to sale to any other person.

The land in this division being now offered for sale no more Settlers Applications will be filed All communications respecting land in the following described Townships—

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen, will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue again changing to a dark and torpid appearance There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness Dr S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs
